

Relocating to Ensō Verde

Moving is both an ending and a beginning. The goal at Ensō Verde is to help residents adjust to the first reality and embrace the second. New residents are introduced to a personal relocation advisor who will help manage every detail of the move, customizing services to fit your needs—even offering tips on how to choose a van line, sell or donate furnishings they don't plan to bring with them or how best to arrange their new residence.

Relocation Advisory Services:

- Real estate agency referrals
- Preferred moving, packing and storage companies
- Auctions, estate sales and donations to charitable organizations or family members
- Decorating and designing your new residence at Ensō Verde
- Arranging for organizing and planning services
- Scheduling for and managing on move-in day
